discount for Commonwealth
Forestry Association members*

The Royal Over-Seas League (ROSL) has a long history of welcoming members from overseas and the UK to its London and Edinburgh clubhouses and providing a network of reciprocal clubs, branches or honorary representatives around the world.

The London clubhouse, comprising two period houses, is in a prime location bordering Green Park and near the Ritz Hotel. Over-Seas House has a private garden, al fresco dining, restaurant, buttry for light meals, bar, drawing room, 80 bedrooms and seven conference and private dining rooms. The Edinburgh clubhouse is centrally situated at 100 Princes Street and provides similar services.

Benefits of membership include economical central London and Edinburgh accommodation, varied events programmes, quarterly journal, discounts on certain cruises and tours, in-house art exhibitions and concerts and short term access to over 70 other clubs around the world in Australia, Canada, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, India, Kenya, Malaysia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, USA and others.

Commonwealth Forestry Association members may enjoy specially discounted joining fees which range from £23 (resident overseas) to £53 (resident within a 50 mile radius of Charing Cross, London). The 2005 annual subscriptions range from £84 - £207 and are halved for new members joining for the period 1 July 2005 - 1 January 2006.

For those aged 17 to 25 and students in full time education (up to the age of 30) the joining fee is waived and the half-year subscription is £33.50.
